

MIXED MEDIA ON CANVAS WITH TRICIA REUST

Medium – Mixed Media

Skill – All Levels

Approximate Cost To Student For Class Materials – $200

Come on an in-depth exploration of mixed media and painting techniques using acrylic paint and various drawing media on canvas over collage. Aspects you will cover include basic design; drawing principles; professional collage application; glazing and dry brushing; stamping, stencilling and printing; photo transfer; texture mediums and finishing off details for a professional presentation. Participants will work on three larger canvases and three smaller canvases over the five days in either a traditional or contemporary approach. Tricia's teaching process includes demonstrations of every technique as well as supportive material, and as much time with the individual participants as possible.

Tricia Reust is a visual artist working in most media. She exhibits regularly, teaches nationally and internationally, and judges many prestigious art competitions. Tricia is a member of several art societies and among many awards won the National Mortimore Prize in 2012, and has had work accepted numerous times in the Bald Archy National Touring Exhibition. She has recorded an episode on TV's "Colour in Your Life", is published in International books and the Australian Artist magazine; and has three instructional videos available through Pulsar Productions.
